

Lakewood Arts “Adopted” School for February, 2024

School Exhibits on our Spotlight Exhibit Wall in 2023-24

Even before our Adopt-a-School program was implemented in 2023, Lakewood Arts exhibited student artwork free of charge, as well as other non-profits. We encourage teachers to contact us if they would like to schedule an exhibit of their students’ work.

We exhibited artwork by students from the following schools in 2023:

St. Mary’s Academy – by former LAC intern Jasmine Seeber

Montclair School of Academics and Enrichment, “Is it Cake?” – teacher Karl Horeis

Thomas Jefferson High, Black History Month – teacher Timothea Bierman

W. Colfax Elementary, – teacher Heather Abreu

Cheltenham Elementary – “Weavers of Hopes and Dreams,” teacher Rachel Moen

Thomas Jefferson High, Dia de los Muertos ceramic skulls – Pottery Class

Student artwork exhibits in 2024 are just beginning! Please contact us if you would like to schedule a show for your students’ art.

On display in January:

Artistic Fox Art and Design Academy – teacher Kadriya Shakirova-Walden

In addition to providing space for teachers to exhibit student artwork, we may also assist with art supplies, special events, or be able to assist your class with a “guest teacher.” If you are a teacher interested in participating in our “Adopt-a-School” program, please contact us at lakewoodarts.president@gmail.com.

"Is it cake?"

with the students because that's a popular show on TV now where bakers make incredible cakes that don't look like cake and the kids like that. For our display I'm inspired by Mendl's Patisserie from The Grand Budapest Hotel by Wes Anderson.
