Thomas Jefferson High School–Mural for Integrated Family Community Services

Timothea Biermann teaches drawing and painting at Thomas Jefferson High School in Denver, Colorado. Her art students will be painting a mural at Integrated Family Community Services in Englewood, Colorado. The mural will serve to welcome community members to this food bank, and to enhance the neighborhood. “The mural design will reflect the delicious foods and cultural colors/designs of Asian and Latinx communities,” says Timi. It will also be an incredible learning experience for the student artists. LAC has assisted Thomas Jefferson High by donating funds to assist with the purchase of art and other supplies for the mural. The design and photographs will be added in the future.

Timi and several High School art students have exhibited their artwork at LAC. She is also part of the Chameleon Art Collective group of art teachers/artists from metro Denver art.

In addition to providing space for teachers to exhibit student artwork, we may also assist with art supplies, special events, or be able to assist your class with a “guest teacher.” If you are a teacher interested in participating in our “Adopt-a-School” program, please contact us at lakewoodarts.president@gmail.com.
